

Curriculum Vitae Annemie Vermaelen

Personal data

Address Belgium: Zeilstraat 30, 2060 Antwerp, Belgium

Address Spain: Cl. Alcocebre 33 (5e), 12100 Grao (Castellon), Spain

Date of birth: 25 June 1984

Nationality: Belgian

Gender: Female

Mobile Spain: +34634574526

E-mail: annemie.vermaelen@gmail.com

Educational training

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| 2009-2014 | PhD Political Sciences (Department Conflict and Development Studies), Ghent University (Belgium), successfully defended February 21 st 2014 |
| 2006-2008 | Master Conflict and Development Studies, Ghent University (Belgium) |
| 2004-2006 | Master Comparative Cultural Studies, Ghent University (Belgium) |
| 2002-2004 | Bachelor African Languages and Cultures, Ghent University (Belgium) |

Relevant work experience

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| 2009-2013 | Doctoral researcher Ghent University (Belgium), Faculty Political and Social Sciences, Department of Conflict and Development Studies, Middle East and North Africa Research Group |
|-----------|--|

International conference presentations

- | | |
|------|---|
| 2009 | VERMAELEN A. 'The Red Sea Dead Sea water conveyor: a conduit to peace or to infrastructural violence', conference paper, Middle East Studies Association, November conference, 21–24 2009, Boston |
| 2010 | VERMAELEN A. 'Spatial fantasies and techno-government in Wadi Araba', conference paper, World Conference Middle Eastern Studies conference, July 19-23 2010, Barcelona |
| 2011 | VERMAELEN A. 'The market value of culture in Wadi Araba', conference paper, International Graduate Conference: Colonial Legacies, Post-Colonial Contestations; decolonizing the social science and the humanities, June 16-18 2011, Frankfurt |

2011	VERMAELEN A. 'Techno-politics in concrete: The Red Sea Dead Sea water conveyor', reworked conference paper, DAVO conference, October 6-8 2011, Berlin
2011	VERMAELEN A. & LENNER K. 'The uneasiness of local knowledge – forms and strategies of knowledge in Wadi Araba, Jordan', conference paper, Cornell Conference: Rethinking Development, November 10-12 2011, Ithica
2012	VERMAELEN A. & LENNER K. 'The uneasiness of local knowledge – forms and strategies of knowledge in Wadi Araba, Jordan', reworked conference paper, Workshop Governance Beyond the Centre Informality, Institutions and Contested Power Structures in Authoritarian Contexts, February 10-12 2012, Berlin
2012	VERMAELEN A. 'Spatial fantasies and techno-government: rearranging landscape and community in Wadi Araba, reworked conference paper, Workshop International Workshop on Meanings and Understandings of Community in Development Discourses and Practice', May 28-29 2012, Cape Town

Organization international workshop, seminar

2011	Summer school class 'Development thinking and practices in the Arab World', 'Global Politics Summer School: Regional Dynamics in the Middle East: Local and European Responsibilities', German-Jordanian University, September 5-17 2011, Amman
2012	International Workshop: 'Lost in translation; Methodological questions of field research in the Middle East and North Africa', Ghent University, October 17-18 2012, Ghent

Languages

Dutch	Mother tongue
English	Upper-advanced level. Comprehension, conversation, reading and writing
French	Intermediate level. Comprehension, conversation, reading and writing
Spanish	Intermediate level. Comprehension, reading Intermediate level. Conservation, writing (currently following classes at EOI Castellon, B1)
Arabic	Notions